Local Gossip

Poor Kin at Court House Friday evening.

Tickets on sale at Storms Drug Store for Friday night.

Go to the reception either in afternoon or evening. Refreshments and music.

Heard Dr. T. T. Eaton in his humorous Lecture, at the court house, Friday Evening April 27.

Mr. Henry Kuhlman has bought the Petty place, on Crab Orchard street for $1,250, and moved his family to town. He is a splendid citizen, one who will be of benefit to the town.

The "C. W. B. M." will give a reception at home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mounts, Tuesday May 1st for benefit of Mountain schools. All are most cordially invited. Hours 3 to 6 in afternoon and 8 in evening. Silver offering.

All members of the Lancaster Presbyterian church are earnestly requested to attend a congregational meeting to be held in the church on Sunday 29th at 10:30 o'clock for the purpose of calling a Pastor, if the way be clear.

Dr. T. T. Eaton, of Louisville, Editor of Western Recorder and Pastor of Walnut street church, will deliver his lecture on "Poor Kin" at Court House Friday. Come and hear the man who can say more in a given length of time than any other man in the South.

All parties indebted to the firm, will please call and settle, as the business must be closed up without delay. Please attend to this immediately.

Hamilton & Dunlap

Clean up your premises.

The grass promises to be fine.

The hemp crop is about broken out. Garrard always ranks at the head of the list on this product.

The farmers are considerably behind with their work, so a small crowd came in to county court Monday.

A quarter's worth of time, a white wash brush and a little labor will add greatly to your premises. Try it.

Work on the Lancaster fair has commenced in earnest, and the best and most enjoyable exhibition in years can be expected.

Wanted—Some one with sand enough in his craw to get up a hotel company. There are plenty of such men here, but they will not get busy. Wake up, gentlemen, and be of some benefit to your community.

Another Blaze.

The fire company was called out on Monday on account of a fire at Frank Lackey's store in Logantown. The roof was in flames, but it was quickly extinguished.

Sam Jennings was brought before Judge Ford Tuesday for examination for killing Mace Miller several weeks ago. At conclusion of the Common wealth's side, the defense offered no proof, and he was remanded to jail without bail to await action of the August grand jury.

Ed Hopper Safe.

Lancaster relatives received a telegram from Mr. Ed Hopper Friday saying that he and daughter, Miss Melle, were not injured by the California earthquake, as they were not in San Francisco at the time of the disaster. Mrs. F. J. White and Miss Bettie Smith have a brother who resided in the stricken city, but he was not injured.

Fine Horse Show.

The show of stallions Monday was the largest and best seen in Lancaster in many years. They were all good ones, and the show was enjoyed by a large crowd. The demand for good horses was never so great as it is today and owners are putting forth every effort to raise better ones. The plug is not worth raising, and a man is wasting time fooling with inferior stock. Read The Record's list of advertisements if you want to know where to find the best horses.

Oratorical Contest.

The Lancaster Lyceum Company will give a good watch, valued at $50, to the best oration delivered by a young man, between ages of 14 and 21. Lancaster will be allowed two contestants. Bryantsville one, Buckeye one, Paint Lick one, and each adjoining county one.

Contest will be on Thursday May 31st and each speech must be original. The object is to encourage the boys in developing their oratorical inclinations. Competent judges will award the prize. Mail or give names of contestants to M. D. Hughes, Sec'y at once.

Who Has The Enterprise?

Interest in building a new hotel has died out considerably, but we are of the opinion that there are enough men of means in Lancaster blessed with enough enterprise and pride who will get together and build a house which will reflect a credit to the town. If some of the close-fisted moneyed people could know how our town is ridiculed by strangers, we believe they would put a little of their cash into Lancaster enterprises instead of running off after every gold brick scheme stargazers bring along. We believe we have enough men who have enough pride, who have sense enough to know that a good hotel will enhance the value of their property, and who are liberal enough to get together and build the hotel. But the trouble is in getting someone to take hold and push the matter. It takes some one who has money to talk it up, as we poor roosters are looked upon as know-nothings and are not given as much as a pleasant look. This is a sad state of case, but the truth nevertheless. If some man or set of men will get together and form a plan, we are satisfied work on a first-class hotel can be commenced at the same time the bank building is commenced, but if everybody sits around and does nothing, Lancaster will always stand out as the laughing stock for travelers who visit our little town. The new bank has bought the lot, but, as that institution is composed of men who want to build up the town, we are satisfied that substantial assistance can be secured from them. Now let's see who will take hold of this all-important matter, who will show that he has some enterprise, who is of some benefit to the community, and any man or men who will bring this to a successful end, will be called blessed by every right-thinking man, woman and child in Lancaster.

Best, Richest and Cheapest.

When you order a floral design, as a matter of course you want it to be correct in make-up, in style and adaptability. If you will give me your order, it will be sent to Bell, the Florist, of Lexington, who has the reputation for giving the best satisfaction and most and reasonable prices. I will appreciate your order and take great pains to please you. Arthur Joseph, at Joseph Mercantile Co's store.

A HORRIBLE MURDER.

Policeman George Pollard Shot To Death While Performing His Duty.

Another Blot Upon Our City's Name.

Again we are called upon to chronicle a bloody murder committed in poor old Lancaster, this time an officer of the law having been murdered in cold blood while performing his duty. Monday, Policeman George Pollard arrested William Humber, a white man, for violating the local option law. Humber having heard the talk done by the whiskey element to the effect that the officers were overstepping their authority, and other stuff being done for the purpose of antagonizing the officers and law-abiding people, resisted arrest and used abusive language to Pollard. Pollard proceeded with his work when Humber made a move as if to draw a pistol when the officer very properly hammered Humber over the head with his stick. Humber was taken to the police court room, and gave bond. He immediately returned to that hell-hole of crime, Battle Row, and opened fire on Pollard as soon as he saw him. Pollard fell mortally wounded. However, the officer pulled his pistol and fired at Humber, one shot striking him in the breast. The officer was carried to Dr. Acton's office, where he died in a few minutes. Humber was placed in jail. He is badly hurt but will get well.

With the horrible state of affairs existing in Lancaster, it is difficult to know just what to say. The writer has lived here all his life and we have never known such an utter disregard for law as exists today. There is no use whipping the devil around the stump in explaining why it is thus. Every man with a thoughtful brain knows the trouble is brought by the element who want whisky sold and who will do anything, no matter how disreputable to antagonize the officers and violate the laws. It is no uncommon occurrence on the street to hear men ridicule the efforts of the officers, to say openly that they propose to bring whiskey into Lancaster whenever they choose, that the officers have no right to stop it and such remarks which spur on and encourage law-breakers. This is a fact which cannot be disputed, and the murder on Monday is the direct result of efforts of certain people to continue the operation of the blind tigers in Lancaster. There is no use in wasting words as to what ought to be done. Everybody knows what should be done. We believe in law and order, and do not countenance or uphold mob violence, but if matters continue longer in this way, the people will be forced to take the law in their own hands and hang some blood-thirsty murderers to the trees in the little park in center of the Public Square. Today, human life in Lancaster is cheap as dirt. Any culprit can shoot down his man, and, if he can secure enough money, there will be some hook or crook by which he will escape punishment. How long are the business men, the law-abiding citizens, especially the church members going to permit this? How can any sincere Christian fold his hands and refuse to avenge the taking of human life right under his nose? Policemen Bezley and Pollard enforced the law and would soon have had the tiger people rooted out. The whiskey people knew this, and, as stated in last issue of this paper they were driven to desperate methods. Humber doubtless heard much of the talk done by people who were determined to annoy the officers, he knew how many men had committed crime and permitted to go free, and as a natural consequence believed he could take the life of the policeman and escape in the usual way.

We have never known the citizens of Lancaster to be so worked up over a crime, and we believe they will now take a hand in upholding the officers, and, we will add that the feeling has reached the point where they will procure a rope and do some hanging unless a change is brought about and the laws are enforced and criminals punished.

Policeman Pollard was a sober, industrious man, and leaves a wife and seven little children. Citizens have made up six or eight hundred dollars for them, and are doing everything in their power for their comfort. He was buried Wednesday afternoon, the business houses closing and almost every body in town attended the services.

Destructive Fire.

On Friday night David Thompson had a valuable barn to burn on his farm about two miles from town. The entire contents were burned, consisting of 400 barrels of corn, a buggy, farming implements and various other articles entailing a loss to him of about $2,500, with only $1,000 insurance, three pairs of mules and a horse, all belonging to other parties. There was no insurance on the stock.

Married in Richmond.

Dr. J. G. Busley, who recently located in Lancaster, was married in Richmond Monday to Miss Flora Bright, of that city. They returned to Lancaster and have taken rooms at the Mason Hotel. The bride is one of Richmond's most popular and attractive young ladies, while the groom is a physician of ability and a gentleman of culture and many sterling qualities, and has many friends in our city. The Record extends congratulations and a hearty welcome to our community.

H. T. LOGAN.

LARGE MEETING OF CITIZENS.

The court room was filled with citizens, Tuesday night, who assembled for the purpose of raising funds for the relief of Policeman George Pollard, who was killed while enforcing the law in Lancaster. Mayor J. M. Duncan stated the object of the meeting, and Bro. Tindler presided. After several songs, and prayer Bro. Ellis, addresses were made by Attorneys Williams, Tomlinson, Robinson, Hamilton, Bro. Ellis and others, and a collection of about $100 taken. The subscriptions ranged from ten to fifty dollars, and were given with a will which showed the intense feeling over the crime, and the deep sympathy felt for the widow and seven children. Other money has been contributed, and the aggregate will make a neat sum for the family.

Sues for Damages.

Danville News—Attorneys Harding & Puryear, this city filed yesterday in the Mercer Circuit Court a suit for $20,000 damages against the Southern Railway for alleged personal injuries to W. Leslie Herndon, who it will be remembered was running as mail clerk on the ill fated train that went through a bridge between Lexington and Versailles several months ago, and was very badly mangled. Herndon is a son of a well-known Lancaster lawyer Captain Wm. Herndon.

Good Advice.

According to the Cadiz Record, if the town had as much enterprise as it has money, in a short time "we would have the nicest little town in the State." Then the paper suggests that all foreign store catalogues be thrown aside and home merchants patronized.

Please Read This.

Last Saturday, this office mailed statements to every subscriber who is in arrears to The Record. This is not only represents much work, but considerable cash out lay. If you received one of the statements, please remember it was sent because we need the money which is justly due us. Please attend to the matter, and thus show that you are a man whose word is as good as his bond.

Girlish Fear.

The other day, we overheard a conversation between one of Lancaster's popular young girls and an elderly gentleman upon the subject of what they most feared. The gentleman was afraid of tigers, bears, etc., and free to confess his cowardice in many ways. "Now my little Miss, pray what do you fear?" queried the gentleman. "Oh, pshaw," she replied, with a toss of her pretty head, "I'm not afraid of anything but snakes, men and fishing worms."

LACE CURTAINS

We have a very large stock of lace curtains containing any price and quality that you may wish. Come in at once and pick up the good values in this line.

Lancaster, Ky., April 27, 1906

The Northern Indiana Presbytery has decided to cut the word, "hell," out of the creed, and substitute "destruction." While we are possibly a poor judge in such matters, yet it seems that there is entirely too much sugar-coating of the final resting, or roasting place of the wicked, and if these modern preachers don't quit it, the world will continue its mile-a-minute gait to that "winter resort." The world was much better back in the good old days when the preacher beat dust out of the pulpit and thundered "hellfire" every few minutes. According to holy writ, there will be weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth, and the people should be told the truth, instead of given consolation in the shape of soothing names for the place presided over by the devil and his angels.

Rockefeller contributed $100,000 to California sufferers, and a California hubbub is raised about the gift. The poor man who subscribes ten dollars is entitled to far more praise, as he has worked for his money, and must deprive himself of necessities to make the donation. Rockefeller's gift was done for show, and moreover, his cash was not earned by the sweat of his brow, and all this newspaper talk about his "liberality" gives us a severe pain. In the first place, no one is entitled to praise for performing the duty of assisting the sufferers, but if any is to be heaped, let it be upon the poor man who gives his hard-earned quarter or dollar in the proper spirit.

Gov Beckham has appointed Hon Henry Lawrence, of the Cadiz Record, a joint general of the Kentucky State Guard, and his brother editors are very proud of the selection. If the editor of this paper possessed the power of Bro Lawrence, we would muster the entire guard and make an attack upon ineffectual subscribers.

The Kentucky Press Association will spend the week of July 23 at Grayson Springs. The committee met at Louisville Saturday and made this decision, for which all those who want to see results will be duly thankful. It is possible that a side trip to the Mammoth Cave will be taken.

The outlook for big crops, plenty of fruit and general prosperity is very encouraging this Spring. There is an old proverb that is worth presenting just now—"He that will not when he may, he shall not when he will." So get busy.

A Wisconsin man committed suicide from worrying over the advent of triplets in his family. It seems that the old man would have been kept so busy jacking the floor at night as not to find time to worry.

The assets of the University of Chicago are $11,446,666 and a champion football team. Were the institution made to pay damages for all the good rail-splitting material it has spoiled, it couldn't stop a cracker wagon.

Not all lawyers are as bad as generally pictured. For instance, an inmate of the Nebraska penitentiary won a prize of $25,000 on a guessing contest, and his lawyer charged him only half this amount for collecting it.

The prompt and liberal manner in which our people contributed to the unfortunate sufferers of San Francisco is only another proof that Americans are the biggest-hearted people under the canopy of heaven.

Father Burnett, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., thinks that no courtship should last over six months. He should make it a year. A girl ought to try out a man in both the picnic and theater season.

Someone has truthfully said that the only school in which the teachers are paid goodly sums is the school of experience.

Uncle Sam came to the rescue of the San Francisco sufferers by going into his jeans and contributing one million dollars.

Devil's Island Torture.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemorrhages, Chronic Coughs, Sore Throats, Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by R. E. McRoberts, Druggist. 50c and $1.00. IMPORTANT MEETING.

There will be a very important meeting of citizens at the Court House Saturday night for the purpose of taking further steps toward providing for the widow and children of Policeman Pollard. There will be some good singing, several addresses by the ministers, lawyers and others. While a goodly sum has already been subscribed, yet it is necessary to raise more money, as the little home of the widow has a mortgage on it for $800, and it is the intention of the people to not only pay this, but make all provisions for the comfort of Mrs Pollard, who, by the way, is in the last stages of consumption. There are seven children, the eldest about nineteen years of age. The following sums have been contributed, and the names of other contributors will be read at the meeting Saturday night. That there may be no conflict with the services at Baptist church, the meeting will not be called to order until 8 o'clock.

Every thing brought splendid prices at the sale of Mr Kuhlman last Wednesday as the following receipts will show: Shoats $5.00 per head, yearling calves $10 to $22, cows $20 to $35, horses $35 to $114 corn $2.50 in the crib. Mr Kuhlman has located in Lancaster.

The most contemptible cuss on earth is the man who comes into a town, with scarcely enough clothes to cover his trifling hide, gets little start, then says he cannot find anything good enough for him. It's only further proof of the truthfulness of the old saying that if you take up a poor dog and feed him, he will invariably turn round and bite you.

Paint, Paint, Paint.

Now is the time for you to begin. There is only one paint for you to use and that is

Rainbow Paint

The cost of applying a cheap paint is the same as a good one. Do not be persuaded into using a paint claimed to be just as good as Rainbow Paint. There is none just as good. Rainbow paint is in a class alone and is fully protected by a guarantee.
